

Gentlemen Trustees for Livington Chappel which is in the Goods for the parsonage House are desired to sign the new Goods which said Goods together with all former Goods are all brought together into one Good & to be conveyed over to new Trustees But the new Trustees are not in power to act till the old Trustees has sign'd a conveyance over to the new Trustees, Mr. Hilbert made a mistake in getting 3 or 4 of the new Trustees hands to the Goods which we find to be wrong, all the old Trustees must sign ^{the new Goods} that are nominated in the old Goods whether they have ever sign'd or not, you may find those that are to sign by Looking into the parsonage House Goods turn over ~~the~~
