CHARITIES ACT, 1960

REGISTRATION OF CHARITIES

Dear Sir,

Name of Charity:— *Rivington Presbyterian
Chapel Trust property in connexion with)*
Place:— Rivington

The above-mentioned charity has been entered in the Central Register of Charities and a copy of the index slip relating to it is enclosed for your information. In order to maintain the Register with up-to-date particulars it is requested that any changes in the information contained in the index slip may be communicated to the Commissioners as they occur. The number at the head of this letter should be quoted in this, and in all other, correspondence with the Commission.

The submission of accounts by the charity has been considered by the Commissioners in relation to the requirements of Section 8 (1) of the Act. Their decision is contained in the enclosed memorandum and it is requested that, in those cases in which the submission of accounts is required, the instructions in the memorandum may be closely complied with.

I return herewith any deed, or copy deed, forwarded with the application for registration and of which the Commissioners were not requested to take custody. Details, if applicable, are shown below.

Yours faithfully,

Alastair Campbell

p.p. W. E. A. LEWIS,
